I would like to take this time and welcome everyone to our 5th Live From The Rock Folk & Blues Festival. I am looking forward to another successful year, and am very excited to announce, following the success of last year's equipment upgrade, that this year's festival will continue to operate equipped with the upgraded sound system. Thanks to our great technical crew under the direction of Sound engineer John Cookshaw. I am sure it will enhance your listening pleasure. I would like to thank my technical crew, most of whom have been with this festival for all 5 years and who are very dedicated in organizing and making the entertainment run smoothly every year. I am proud to represent a part of this festival and present it to you, the audience, Thank you all for your continuing support in making this year's festival a success. All the best! Russell Krawczuk

John Cookshaw – Sound Engineer

John's brilliance as a sound engineer is overwhelmed by his heartfelt inspiration towards life, and his crew on the stages of Live from the Rock Folk Festival. John has mixed sound for many years at Canada's top Festivals and Acts such as Main Stage Winnipeg Folk Festival, Festival du Voyageur, Trout Forest Festival and many more than there is room to list.

The Hosts with the Most!

Thanks are due to the wonderful folks who keep the music LIVE and on time at our various venues. Hosting a stage is challenge to which not everyone cares to rise! So when you visit one of our five stages, please make sure to smile at the person who has the staggering task of being pleasant on both sides of the microphone!

Denise Krawczuk at the Fish & Game Stage...

Marlo Dahl at Creekside Stage

Kristin Stansell keeps the Family Stage running on Friday

Carly Ray takes on the Family Stage responsibilities for Saturday & Sunday

Al Cresswell hosts the Friday Main Stage during the afternoon

Norman Sponchia takes on Main Stage Friday Night and Saturday afternoon

Steve Carruthers brings his own brand of humour to Saturday night's Main Stage show.

Colin Bruce hosts Sunday afternoon.

The Carruthers Family who, once again, are the hosts of the Open Stage!
